

Entry Cover Sheet

Please email this cover sheet along with the story to jcannon@camelford.cornwall.sch.uk

Each school can submit up to 2 entries per category (KS1, LKS2, UKS2)

KS1

LKS2

UKS2

(please circle)

Name: Otis Wright

Year Group: 2

School: Camelford Primary School

Title of Story: The Gruffalo

Use present and past tenses correctly and consistently.

Use subordinate and coordinate.

Use expanded noun phrases.

Use words with suffixes.

One chined out, relaxing day a little rabbit took a hop in the wild, spooky woods looking for some food. A small, powerful thumper saw the rabbit and thought he looked tasty. The thumper invited the rabbit to his under ground hole but the rabbit was going to have breakfast with a griggor. The thumper didn't know what a griggor was, so the rabbit told the thumper that he has terrible tusks, terrible teeth and terrible jaws. The thumper ran away, quickly and the rabbit thought he was silly because there's no such thing as a griggor! The rabbit hoped deerier like the woods. A far less, brave little snake saw the rabbit and thought he look yummy. The little snake invited rabbit to his 'grassy' house for tea but the rabbit was going to have tea with a griggor. The little snake didn't know what a griggor was so rabbit said he has terrible knees / terrible and toes and a poisonous wait at the end of his nose. Rattle snake slithered off immediately and the rabbit thought he was silly because there's no such thing as a griggor! When rabbit went a little bit deerier into the woods, he stopped and started shivering. It had terrible tusks, terrible teeth and terrible jaws, terrible knees and terrible toes and poisonous wait at the end of his nose. It was a griggor! The griggor told the rabbit that he was terrifying and everyone was petrified of him. The griggor wanted to see this so the griggor forced the rabbit into the woods but no animals could be seen because they were hidden. Rabbit thought carefully and came up with a idea. Rabbit told the griggor his secret food was griggor pizza! The griggor ran away and never came back. The rabbit sat on a rock and ate some berries in peace.